Welcome to CIENFUEGOS

Known as the Pearl of the South, Cienfuegos has a privileged position in the southern center of Cuba, with excellent conditions for the arrival of visitors by different routes: air, sea and land. It extends over an area of 4 188.61 km<sup>2</sup> and with a current population of 406 847 inhabitants.

This city breathes a remarkable French influence and the longest Paseo del Prado on the island. Its historical center and the Punta Gorda protection zone, since 2005, hold the status of Cultural Heritage of Mankind.

Jagua Bay, one of its great treasures, is ideal for the practice of nautical activities. Those who like diving will find the largest coral formation in the Caribbean, called Notre Dame, because of its similarity to the French

Nature lovers can find, among other attractions, the mineral-thermal waters in Ciego Montero, El Nicho with its waterfalls and springfalls, the Martín Infierno cave, where you can find the largest stalagmite of the world. The Rancho Luna, Yaguanabo and Playa Ingles beaches, as well as the oldest Botanical Garden in Cuba and the Guanaroca Lagoon, ideal place for bird watching, especially pink flamingos.

These is just a mention of the several pleasures you will find in the city of the sea, the place where the most important Cuban popular musician of all time was born, Benny Moré, who will undoubtedly seduce you to buy a return ticket, enjoy it then!
